Dear Parents and Carers of year 6 children,

I have decided this year, because the maths SATs tests have become more challenging, that I will offer a one hour maths revision session on a Monday after school from 3.35 to 4.35pm. This session will be free to attend and parents are welcome to join in too. I have detailed a potential schedule and I will aim to cover a variety of reasoning style maths questions to look at strategies for answering the questions. For children that cannot attend (who I feel would benefit from revision) I will be offering a shorter lunchtime session (possibly on a Friday).

There are other maths areas, which I cannot include owing to time constraints, but I am happy to cover other areas as requested and I intend to link the weekly homework to areas that we revise.

Revision Schedule		My child will be attending	I will be attending
Monday 9 th January 2017	Place Value, Ordering and Rounding including negative numbers and roman numerals
Monday 16 th January 2017	Decimal place value, ordering and rounding
Monday 23 rd January 2017	Adding and Subtracting
Monday 30 th January 2017	Multiples, factors, primes, squares and cubes
Monday 6 th February 2017	Multiplying including long multiplication
Monday 20 th February 2017	Division including long division
Monday 27 th February 2017	Checking and Estimating
Monday 6 th March 2017	Algebra including patterns, sequences and formulae
Monday 13 th March 2017	Fractions - link to decimals and percentages and equivalents
Monday 20 th March 2017	Fractions - adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing
Monday 27 th March 2017	Percentages
Monday 24 th April 2017	Proportion and ratio

If you would like your child to take part in these revision sessions, can you please tick the ones you think they will be attending.

Yours

Lorna Burrow
