

26th January 2017

School Council Minutes

Ideas for NSPCC Number Day

- What is the NSPCC?

The School Council chatted about how the NSPCC (National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children) is a brilliant charity which are there to protect children and keep them safe. We discussed how the NSPCC Charity Day has a number theme to it this year.

- What number activities could we do for NSPCC Number Day?

The School Council came up with lots of fun ideas to make the NSPCC Number day a success. Here are some of them...

- Dressing up as number sports shirt, onesie,
- Whole school forming a giant number line
- Making human number sentences - teachers to be the symbols
- Children to teach the teachers maths
- Big bucket of numbers
- Proper maths library – maths books, stuff to play with, calculations
- Bingo
- Number hunt
- Races
- Times Tables competitions.

Pupil Parliament is to be reinstated

The School Council were pleased to hear that this is going to be started again. They had lots of suggestions about the issues they would like to debate.

- What issues effect you as children?
  - Should children be allowed to wear casual clothes for school?
  - Should children have homework?
  - Should we change the badge of Denton?
- Animals
  - Should animals be used in sports and entertainment?
  - Should all animals be kept as pets?
  - Should every class have a pet?
- Other topics?
  - Should boys and girls be treated differently?