Dear Parents and Carers,

e-Safety and Child Net

Thank you to those of you who attended the Child Net parent's session last week. We hope that you found the evening interesting and it provided you with some useful information.

For those of you who were unable to join us, you can find a wealth of information on the Child Net website:
<http://www.childnet.com/parents-and-carers>

To further support you in helping your child keep safe online, we are sending home a publication called Digital Parenting which is provided free of charge by Vodafone UK and The Parent Zone, supported by other charities and companies. The magazine is designed for parents rather than children and gives information about many aspects of online safety from use of apps and online gaming to parental controls for phones, consoles and the internet and much, much more. This will be coming home in book bags over the next few days and we hope that you will find it to be helpful. Previous issues of Digital Parenting can be downloaded at: http://www.theparentzone.co.uk/vodafone_digital_parenting_magazine/2248_0

Yours sincerely,

Jill Gardner
